

24 HOURS IN DUBLIN

Here's a quick guide to help you dive in and explore Dublin like a local!

A busy capital? A source of inspiration for literary giants? A graceful Georgian showcase? A vibrant 21st century tech hub? Dublin is all of these – and so much more besides. We've had over a thousand years to prepare for your visit. So get ready for the very many surprises that Ireland's capital is waiting to spring on you...

HERE ARE SOME IDEAS TO MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR PRECIOUS FREE TIME IN DUBLIN !

Explore:

Art, Culture, Museums & Galleries

Bespoke Tours

Restaurants & Bars

Dublin Distilleries

To check out what's on while you are visiting just click here!

Dublin

JAMESON DISTILLERY

Jameson's Bow Street Distillery has been tucked away behind Smithfield Square for centuries.

This means it can now offer a sensory overload that's only available in a building with spirit soaked into its stone.

And this is a home which extends a very warm welcome to visitors by offering fascinating tours, tastings and insights into the art of distilling.

BOOK OF KELLS, TRINITY & OLD LIBRARY

Come see the world's most famous medieval manuscript.

GAA MUSEUM

The heart of Irish sporting life for over 100 years.

THE LITTLE MUSEUM OF DUBLIN

Home to an eclectic and quirky mix of unique objects.

ABBEY THEATRE

Ireland's historical national theatre for over 100 years.

DUBLIN BAY CRUISES

Enjoy a chilled 75 minute cruise taking in a variety of scenery and landmarks along the way. On board you can enjoy a commentary while you drink a beverage of your choice, relax and enjoy the beautiful views.

DUBLIN DECODED

This is not your regular, scheduled public tour but rather a small and intimate one. Focusing on history with the emphasis on the visual, like fine art, architecture, town planning and the centuries of changes to the street-scape.

THE OLD LIFFEY FERRY

First granted a charter in 1665 by King Charles II and it was eventually discontinued in 1982, with the opening of the East Link toll bridge (Tom Clarke Bridge).

CHESTER BEATTY

Explore the riches of Eastern and Islamic art in the heart of Dublin Castle.

This exquisite collection showcases breathtaking examples of creativity from numerous countries including Egypt, Ethiopia, India, Iran and China.

Displayed in a purpose-built gallery, the Chester Beatty introduces a fascinating and intoxicating world of imagination and inspiration.

BOWES BAR

A rare establishments in Dublin; a pub with genuine old world charm located in the heart of Temple Bar.

DOOLALLY

Doolally is a stunning lunch, dinner and weekend brunch destination serving superb Indian cuisine.

THE CRAFTY FOX

Offering a menu of curious cocktails, craft beers and ciders to whet the palate while you relax.

L'GUEULETON

Rustic red brick walled dining room with blackboard menus and dark wood furniture for a French menu.

THE LAZY BIKE TOUR COMPANY

One of the best ways to get know Dublin; your guide will share interesting stories and facts at each location they stop at along the way.

Covering some of the major tourist attractions in the city from, Dublin Castle, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Guinness Brewery, Kilmainham Jail and Christchurch Cathedral.

THE CAMDEN

Housed in an ex-1930s cinema located on uber-vibrant Camden Street, The Camden is a new multi-purpose venue with cocktail bar, restaurant and private speak-easy bar. Oh, and it even has a real brewery upstairs.

MCDAID'S PUB

The one time haunt of Patrick Kavanagh, Flann O'Brien, J.P. Donleavy and Liam O'Flaherty. It is said that Behan based some of his characters in The Hostage and Borstal Boy on publicans he met in McDavid's.

BOBBY'S WINE BAR

With bright pink and green interiors, plus delicious nibbles to keep the tipples company, all your senses have something to savour.

GUINNESS STOREHOUSE

A fascinating, fully guided experience, the Guinness Storehouse Tour explores the iconic St James's Gate site.

You'll explore seven floors that explain how the "black stuff" became legendary the world over.

Also, enjoy stunning 360° views from the Gravity Bar as you sip on a complementary pint of Guinness.

THE OLD STAND

One of Dublin's most popular and well-known hosteleries – a true Dublin Pub atmosphere and experience.

MAE

Found in leafy Ballsbridge, this is a new venture from Grainne O'Keefe, celebrating seasonal cooking and considered wines.

LITTLE PYG

"300 years of Italian technique" go into Little Pyg's authentic Neapolitan style pizzas. Served by specially trained chefs and Michelin Maestro Enzo Coccia.

FOR MORE GREAT IDEAS TO SAMPLE THE DUBLIN SCENE CLICK HERE!

THE CUSTOM HOUSE

Gloriously situated in Dublin Docklands, The Custom House fascinates visitors with the story of 230 years of Irish history, architecture and trade.

IRISH WHISKEY MUSEUM

Independent of any distillery; where visitors can explore a huge selection of Irish Whiskey.

14 HENRIETTA STREET

Capturing over 300 years of family and city life.

EPIC – THE IRISH EMIGRATION MUSEUM

Discover why over 10 million people left this island, where they went and what they brought with them.

ROE & CO. WHISKEY DISTILLERY

Housed in the former Guinness Power Station, the Roe & Co distillery has brought the new energy to Irish whiskey.

Roe & Co takes a distinctly modern approach to distilling while commemorating George Roe, a pioneer who helped build the original golden era of Irish whiskey.

With two tours; ideal if you want to develop your cocktail skills!

DUBLIN CASTLE

One of the most important buildings in Irish history. From 1204, until 1922 it was the seat of English, then British rule in Ireland.

THE NATIONAL GALLERY OF IRELAND

Established in 1854, and opened in January 1866, in the heart of Dublin, a short stroll from Trinity College and Merrion Square. It boasts some 2,500 paintings and approximately 10,000 other works in different media.

HUGH HANNE GALLERY

House to an extensive contemporary collection including Francis Bacon's legendary studio, which was relocated from London to Dublin in 1998.

Planning Your Itinerary?

CLICK BELOW FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO FIND OUT WHAT'S ON DURING YOUR STAY

Dublin

