

The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
Joe R. and Teresa Lozano Long School of Medicine

Director, Greehey Children's Cancer Research Institute

The Long School of Medicine at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio (dba UT Health San Antonio) seeks an individual with an outstanding record of leadership, scientific and educational achievement, and faculty/trainee recruitment and mentoring as its Director, Greehey Children's Cancer Research Institute(GCCRI). Dynamic leadership, clear communication, strong interpersonal skills, and a keen strategic vision are crucial characteristics required for success. Reporting to the Dean of the Long School of Medicine, the Director will be responsible for continuing to build and maintain excellence in research programs, high quality educational programs, and a collegial interactive culture. The UT Health San Antonio is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and is committed to excellence through diversity among its faculty, staff and students including protected veterans and persons with disabilities.

Candidates must have a PhD and/or MD, and academic experience consistent with eligibility for full Professor with tenure. The ideal candidate will have a widely-recognized national reputation in the field of childhood cancer research. The ability to foster a culture of collaboration, innovation, and accountability across the Health Science Center is important. This is a wonderful opportunity for a visionary leader. UT Health San Antonio is a research-intensive institution located in San Antonio and it sits in the gateway to the picturesque Texas Hill Country. San Antonio is a vibrant, multicultural city with year-round recreational activities and an attractive cost-of-living.
